DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Application

In view of the Appeal Brief filed on 3/15/10, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.

A Supervisory Patent Examiner (SPE) has approved of reopening prosecution by signing below:

/SREENI PADMANABHAN/

Supervisory Patent Examiner, Art Unit 1627

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art is Vandeveldt et al. (WO 91/07876) in view of Berger (US Patent 4,574,084) and Harwardt et al. (DE 41 37 544) in view of Berger (US Patent 4,574,084). Both primary references do not teach that administration to the skin to treat skin diseases, rather the references teaches disinfection for inanimate objects, such as toilets, rooms, closets, furniture, etc. Moreover, the secondary reference, Berger et al. does not teach that any kind of biocidal composition can be used for the treatment of any skin disease, much less those diseases caused by the herpes simplex virae. Applicant provides Exhibit A for support. Therefore, one of ordinary skill in the art would not have a reasonable expectation of success for using chloramine-T as suitable for the topical treatment of efflorescence skin diseases caused by the herpes simplex virae.

In view of the above reasons for allowance, the corresponding 103(a) obviousness rejections are hereby withdrawn.

Applicant's amendments filed on 5/10/10 have rendered the 112 rejections of the last Office Action moot, therefore hereby withdrawn.

The instant claims are now free of the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
